

COLD END MAINTENANCE SPECIALIST, AGBARA - 0020

Job Purpose:

To ensure optimum engineering services are provided to Cold End section and other related areas on the production floor. This position also has responsibilities for availability of machinery and equipment and minimal down time.

Responsibilities:

- Ensure all project activities are achieved within agreed time limits and in line with approved budget
- Repair and maintain Plant machinery & equipment such as coating & inspection machines
- (bottle separator, palletizers, conveyors and other related machines)
- Perform job change & set-up all Cold End & Printing machines
- Re-set inspection machines to reject challenged samples/defect bottles as requested by Quality Assurance Department
- Repair or replace devices as cylinders, sensors, worn-out or damaged electrical/electronic
- components or mechanical parts
- Report in detail all activities performed in his shift and fill up Cold End maintenance forms.
- Participate in plant safety, health, & environmental programs

Qualifications & Experience

- Bachelor's degree or Higher National Diploma (HND) in Electrical Electronics Engineering or related field
- Minimum of 1 - 3years experience in bottle manufacturing plant
- Knowledge of Programmable Logic Control (PLC) is an added advantage
- Analytical thinking
- Good report writing skills